

Off the List
Kimbo Tippett

I had to take you off the list.
Know that you surely will be missed.
I had hoped that you would resist.
My ministration will now decist.

I know it hurts you deep inside
When I tell you all your heroes lied.
At least I know that I have tried.
I'll pass and leave you to your pride.

I'm always your friend.
You're friend 'till the end.
You're not a fighter, it's true.
I guess that means I'll have to do the fighting for you.

We could use a little help.
Right now, we are almost overwhelmed.
I will never quit and this is not a rant.
I'm way too busy, I can't wait for your spine transplant.

Cowards and deserters all around.
I will keep on fighting 'till I'm down.
Although it seems as dark as night.
I only want to do what's right.
