

Serial Killers

Kimbo Tippett

Psychos... they are our curse.
Kakistocracy, or maybe worse.
To think that you'll get justice in their courts is a joke.
Mind manipulation, Their conscience has been broke.

Serial Killers never turn themselves in.
It's always up to others to put them to an end.
Serial Killers don't commit sin.
They are very special. They deserve to win.

Serial Killers never turn themselves in.
It's always up to others to put them to an end.
Serial Killers think that it's fun
To have somebody captive and in a dungeon.

Psychopaths have their own rules.
"They are brilliant. We are all fools."
In the "Big Club" they are beyond reproach.
When in reality, they're worse than a roach.
"La cucaracha"... stomp right on it's head.
The only good cockroach is a cockroach that's dead.

Serial Killers never turn themselves in.
It's always up to others to put them to an end.
Serial Killers don't commit sin.
They are very special. They deserve to win.

Parasites... no doubt about it.
Their lies... we can do without it.
I would trust an alien, from Alpha Centauri
Before I'd ever trust these phony human beings.

Serial Killers never turn themselves in.
It's always up to others to put them to an end.
