

A Wise Man

Kimbo Tippett

It is a wise man that knows he's a fool.
We are all here to learn the Universe rules.
It is awards and degrees that make you
Think you can do what you please.

You think you're smarter than you actually are.
The Absolute just will not fit in a jar.
Praise the Controller of the planets and stars.
Try to see far.

It is a wise man that knows he's a fool.
Wise men are humble, this is always the rule.
The greatest one of us all knows he's small
And is server of all.

You really think that you should just be obeyed.
If you believe it... it's clear you've been played.
The measure of success is not what you're paid.
But what you've made.

Why do we waste so much time always playing it cool?
Do we only live for ourselves?
All is One Vast School.

It is a wise man that knows he's a fool.
Things are not clear in a polluted pool.
Living for diamonds and jewels
Is a goal that is good for a ghoul.

Time heals all wounds and then it always reveals.
That it is also time that wounds every heel.
If you don't listen, then you surely must feel.
Time to get real.

Why do we waste so much time always playing it cool?
Do we only live for ourselves?
All is One Vast School.

It is a wise man that knows he's a fool.
