

Everybody Freaked Out

Kimbo Tippett

One day the chemtrails just stopped.
They tried to dial 911, but couldn't get a cop.
The ATMs all were down.
Everybody Freaked Out!

Megachurch congregations showed up, but the pastors were all gone.
Government buildings were empty. "How will we get along?"
"News" outlets didn't make a sound.
Everybody Freaked Out!

We have come from outside of your sphere. Our superiors have finally made it very clear.
We can now help you and get involved.
We have been watching while your race has been devolved.
We have been longing to help you for so long.
Our hope was you would rise up correcting what was wrong.
It is best if you deal with these things on your own.
But now we have to help you. Bad seeds have been sown.
We have identified the psychopathic beings.
They are now gone and you are now free.

Celebrities and sports figures were nowhere to be found.
Every single politician was removed. The evil ones were bound.
No one was left that was wearing a crown.
Everybody Freaked Out!

Power was taken from billionaires and social engineers.
Everything they hoarded for themselves, is given to your peers.
The wicked high flyers are knocked to the ground.
Everybody Freaked Out!

The hidden technology and hidden history
Available to all and completely free.
No one can now blind you or dirty up your skies.
There are no more teachers that can fill you up with lies.
Now, it is the time to open up your mind.
It finally is safe to see what you can find.
Your family's secure and everyone is kind.
Real brothers and sisters are all that's left behind.
We have identified the psychopathic beings.
They are now gone and you are now free.

The Big Apocalypse. It finally is here. No reason to fear.
A new beginning. Your highest hopes. This could be the year.
Once they all found it out,

Everybody Freaked Out!

All of your water and food now will be clean.
There will no longer be a need for any vaccine.
Your children will be strong and stout.
Everybody Freaked Out!

There is plenty for all to have enough.
No more need for fighting. No more need to be rough.
When they found out there was no need to frown,
Everybody Freaked Out!

The firemen were all still here.
Also anyone that had real care.
Anyone that couldn't be scared.
Brothers and Sisters will all be spared.
The people all started to sing and shout.
Everybody Freaked Out!

Now that the soulless beings are in the void,
The devious deceptors have all been destroyed .
All are now free to try to live their dreams.
You can be a light. You can be a beam.
Enough is plenty. No need for greed.
Make a bouquet from the flowers in your reach.
No need for sermons. No need to preach.
All of the best things are given unto each.
We have identified the psychopathic beings.
They are now gone and you are now free.
