

Hollywood

Kimbo Tippett

Hollywood... no good. Hollywood... misunderstood.
What does it take to make it in Hollywood?
Equal parts cocaine mixed with the insane.
In the heart, no body home, but plenty of adrenochrome.
Seekers of fame willing to pay any price.
Even if that price is child sacrifice.

Hollywood... it's a shame. Hollywood... it's so lame.
What does it take to make it in Hollywood?
The sick love of self that rules and runs amok.
What looks like a peacock is really just a duck.
All entertainment has been fully weaponized.
Their god is The Oscar. Fame is their prize.

Hollywood... it's a stain. Hollywood... down the drain.
What does it take to make it in Hollywood?
It really helps a lot if you don't have a brain.
Bad taste is a plus and the desire to reign.
It's best if you're twisted with secrets to hide.
It's easy to control you when you're empty inside.

Hollywood... it's a crime. Hollywood... a waste of time .
What does it take to make it in Hollywood?
Someone with no scruples or morality
And willing to be paid to lie to you and me.
The Vampire Ball is something to avoid.
This is the Monster Mash with your host Sigmund Freud.

Hollywood... makes us sick. Hollywood... it's just a trick.
What does it take to make it in Hollywood?
Plenty of deception and nothing that is real.
Only motivated by how much that you can steal.

Hollywood... it's no good.
